

DONATION GUIDELINES

Friends is pleased to accept donations of printed or recorded materials that are suitable for use by the Library or for resale.

ALL MATERIALS

In good repair - no mold, water damage, strong odors, excessive marking, missing covers or pages.

Age limitations do not apply to materials that may be considered antiquarian, vintage, or collectible.

BOOKS

YES, Please donate	NO, Thanks
Hardback Paperback Fiction Non-Fiction All Subjects and Genres All Ages (see Children's section below)	Textbooks > 5 years old Encyclopedias > 2 years old Incomplete Sets Computer Manuals >5 years old Travel Guides >2 years old Membership/Phone Directories/Yearbooks Adult oriented materials Paperbacks without front cover

VIDEOS, RECORDED MUSIC & AUDIO BOOKS

YES, Please donate	NO, Thanks
DVD & BluRay video formats CD & Record music formats CD audio book format	Missing Covers/Cases Non-commercially produced (home recordings) Videos Rated NC-17 or X Cassette format VHS format

MAGAZINES

YES, Please donate	NO, Thanks
Women's Interest/Cooking/Décor/Sewing Weekly Publications (e.g., Time) <1 year old Special Interest <5 years old Readers' Digest (RD) <1 year old	Weekly Magazines & RD >1 year old Other Magazines > 5 years old, unless collectible National Geographic – more than 12 per donation Adult-oriented Magazines (e.g., Playboy)

CHILDREN'S BOOKS

YES, Please donate	NO, Thanks
Published since 1985 Ordinary Books, printed on paper or cardboard, only	Published prior to 1985 - considered Adult Vintage/Collectible Spiral bindings (plastic or metal) Toys attached Electronic parts (music, sound makers) Painted, Plastic, Rubber, Fabric, or Metal components Printed on materials other than paper or cardboard Excessive markings, pages colored, workbook pages filled in Games, Puzzles, Toys